

Greetings on the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity:

This feast day of the Trinity well illustrates the incomparable Mystery of God. Theologians speak of the mutual co-inhering of the Three Persons of the Trinity. To put it a little more “simply”: in God there are “three distinct Persons, equal in majesty, One in Being, undivided in splendour, yet One Lord, one God.” (Preface of the Trinity.)

The foundations of the Doctrine of the Trinity are, of course, the discourses of Jesus recorded in the Gospels.

The Church over the early centuries, especially at the Council of Nicea in 325, had to grapple with the complexity of integrating the notion of three persons but maintaining the integrity of the One God of Revelation to Israel. “Listen Israel, the Lord our God is ONE God...Dt 6:4 – the famous Prayer the Shema, Hebrew for “listen” – quite a contrast to the many gods of the cultures around them.

Each Person of the Trinity is God, whole and entire. They are distinct from one another in their relations of origin: as the Fourth Lateran Council declared “it is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds.” While distinct in their relations with one another, they are one in all else. The whole work of creation and grace is a single operation common to all three divine persons, who at the same time operate according to their unique properties, so that all things are from the Father, through the Son and in the Holy Spirit.’

We are blessedly pleased to speak of God who has revealed in Jesus this mystery of the inner life of the loving Communion of Divine Persons to us.

In Jesus we learn that God desires to share the Divine Life with each of us: ‘make your home in me as I make mine in you’; ‘the Father and I are one’, ‘we shall come and make our home in you...’ - words so filled with God’s desire for intimacy with his people. May we allow God to embrace us in love.

Our liturgical life is meant to draw us into the Mystery of this transcendent, yet immanent, and intimate, God. The Eastern Churches have a strong sense of our being taken up into the life of God – the process called divinization.

Prayerful reflection upon the Mystery of the Trinity may induce in us adoration and awe together with a joyful sense of wonder at the humility of God to be so close to us in love.

Seminar on Fathering: Robert Falzon of Men Alive:

Some facts to cogitate on: "Men who have a good relationship with their father have a higher life satisfaction level later in life. Premature deaths, substance abuse and law-breaking for fathers tends to decline when they are involved more in their children's life. The % of fatherless youth in a neighbourhood is one of the best predictors of crime rates for that area." 7.30pm Tues 13 June, Parish Hall; 21 Twentieth Ave, Hoxton Park.

POSITION VACANT - Housekeeper/Cook .

Applications are invited for the position of Housekeeper/Cook based at an Auxiliary Bishop's residence located in the Inner West of Sydney in the Sydney Archdiocese. Details of this position, including the job description may be viewed at www.catholicjobsonline.com.au. Applications close 19 June, 2017

SURVEYS: Below are three possible surveys for you to check out. The first one is very important – directed at youth and young adults...

National Youth Survey: Young people between the ages of 16-29 are invited to join an International Survey on their views about life, faith and their experience of Church through an online survey. This is part of a national consultation process that will inform an international conversation in Rome next year. "The Australian bishops see the potential of young people; they seek to listen to young people and they recognize that sometimes young people struggle to find their sense of place and purpose. "Young people are encouraged to tell their friends about the survey or share the link with their networks. It will run for four weeks. CLOSING DATE FOR RESPONSES IS MIDNIGHT SUNDAY JULY @ 2017.
