INVITATION: HOLY THURSDAY MASS OF LAST SUPPER 7.30 THURSDAY MARCH 29

As I say each year, for me this is the most beautiful Mass of the Year – held in candlelight, we remember the Last Supper of Jesus: the night of his betrayal and arrest, and the night before he was crucified. He gave us the humble example of service by washing the feet of his apostles. God dwelling among us in Jesus desires to serve us, to wash our feet, and care for us! We need his care. Then he left us his perpetual presence and on-going memory made Real in the Eucharist. He touches us, meets us especially in the Mass and we touch him and meet him there together with all who have gone before us through death. That is where we truly become a community of Christ's faithful. Eucharist without service is empty; service without Eucharist may not last the distance. We should aim to have at least one member of every family in the Parish come to this Mass – for his blessing on our family and individual life, and in gratitude to Jesus for the supreme gift of the Eucharist – our life-line as Catholics. At the end of the Mass you are invited to light a candle in the sanctuary and Shrine. (We will have extra seating available for this Mass). Peter Hearn MSC
