

“Bible Study 2018: The Eucharist in Scripture

The Catholic tradition is full of beautiful ritual and symbolism, none more so than in the Eucharistic celebration.

- What is the symbolism of mixing water and wine?
- What is the meaning of ‘do this in memory of me’?

How is the Mass the offering of a living sacrifice?

These answers and more are found in the six sessions of this year’s Bible Study commencing this May.

Tuesday Sessions: 7:30 pm to 8:30 pm followed by refreshments

Starting 15 May, final session 19 June

Friday Sessions: 10:00 am to 11:30am refreshments served mid session

Starting 18 May, final session 22 June

Venue: Ventnor heritage building OLSH Randwick

Cost: $20 for the book set and refreshments

Payment received and books handed out at the first session

No prior registration required, just turn up at the first session”

I highly recommend these meetings as knowledge of the central ritual of our Catholic life is life-giving, helping us to value the mind-blowing richness Christ has left us in the Eucharist.

The Cemetery Mass for the deceased will be celebrated in the South Chapel, Eastern Suburbs Memorial Gardens and Crematorium, Botany on Saturday, 12 May, 2018 at 11am.

EMHC’s NOT ON EMAIL: copies of the new roster can be collected from the Sacristy. Because the chalice will not be available during the flu season less people will be required. Therefore, it will be the first people to sign in at each Mass who will be EMHC’s.

Communion from the Chalice: As the cold/flu season is on us with some parishioners already suffering, if you have symptoms of cold or flu, please do not proceed to receive communion from the Chalice. I will take advice, as per last year, from Drs as to when we will discontinue reception from the Chalices. Peter Hearn MSC
