

Greetings: NAIDOC WEEK: This year it features the incredible role of Aboriginal Women in keeping their families together. A story from the Broome area: "A few years ago ... a group of Aboriginal women gathered with their local priest to discuss the purchase of a statue of Our Lady for the Parish Church. Among the women were mothers who had lost sons to road accidents, suicide, alcohol, kidney disease, violence and long terms in prison. They were grandmothers who now cared for the younger children left behind. They were their custodians dedicated to providing something of a stable life. When given a number of holy cards depicting various images of Mary – O L of Lourdes, Fatima, Walsingham, Carmel, Guadeloupe, and the Pieta – they unanimously chose the Pieta, Michelangelo's statue of the Blessed Mother with the broken body of her son Jesus which lay upon her lap, cradled in her arms. It was an image they were familiar with after countless experiences of tragically losing their own sons. The sentiments expressed in the image of the Pieta resonated most profoundly with them for good reasons..." [Of interest: Brigidine and Marcellin educate around 40 Aboriginal Students through bursaries.] See display in Foyer on MSC-OLSH Mission Hammond Island.

A re-cap of last week's Bulletin of the Plenary Council of the Catholic Church of Australia booked for 2020-21. Some areas a Plenary Council might consider: How combat the virulent secularism and the rise of atheism, especially among young people? How renew, and support the family, parish and school as evangelisers? How evangelise, re-evangelise our culture proposing the Catholic vision of the human person, relationships and morality under grace? ...praying and worshipping God in ways that are worthy and welcoming? ...care for those on the margins? ... Vocations, marital, priestly and religious vocations (lay single people are always left out in this line up....)

OLSH Church Repairs

The scaffolding will be progressively removed beginning Monday. The final lot of repairs will involve a boom being used to finish the part of the wall and windows on the Shrine Wall overlooking Platinum Pre-School. This will be done on weekends. It does not include the main window which will be done under a separate contract at a later date – finances allowing.

The workmanship has been excellent – especially the window of the Last Supper and that of Margaret Mary in the Shrine. Peter Hearn MSC

Request: Volunteers are needed to purify the sacred vessels. This takes approx. one hour. If we receive one volunteer you will be on a roster once every three weeks. If we receive two volunteers you will be on a roster once a month. Please contact Trish at the Parish on 9399 6775 or call in to the office.
